

AHMET SENDIL BIO

Ahmet Sendil was born in Antalya in 1973. He started his career in the music business in 1989, djing at Studio 54, the first major club in Turkey. After that, he started performing on almost every major Turkish clubs and increased his number of productions.

In 2007, Ahmet formed his record labels M-Vitamine and Bosphorus Underground Recordings which are today very recognized in the music business and counts with the support of Mario Miranda, PRT Stacho, Federico Milani, Andrea Roma, Koen Groeneveld, Glitter and many others.

After producing several tracks and remixes that reached highest positions on Beatport's Top 100 Charts Ahmet was awarded the 3rd place as Best Minimal Artist on 2008. And started traveling and playing his music on different countries such as Germany, England, Mexico, Switzerland, Sweden, Bulgaria, India, Brazil, France, Italy and more.

After being recognized as one of the best minimal producers in 2009 Beatport Awards, Ahmet continues releasing tracks and also focusing on nurturing other promising Artists on his label.